1. In this part of the sermon Jesus says that people are calling him Lord but not acting as if he is Lord. What do these passages teach us about the Lordship of Jesus?
  - a. John 13:12-20
  - b. Romans 10:5-13
  - c. Philippians 2:1-11
  - d. Colossians 3:12-25

2. Jesus says that we acknowledge him as lord by doing what he says. What do these passages teach us about the word of God? (*note that “law,” “commands,” & “statutes” can all be used synonymously with “word.”)
  - a. Psalm 119:33-48
  - b. Proverbs 3:3; 7:1-3
  - c. Jeremiah 31:31-34
  - d. Hebrews 4:1-13 (esp. vs. 12)

3. Share with each other instances when the “floods” Jesus describes (cf. Luke 6:48) have broken up against your “house.” Did you find that the foundation you had built was able to withstand those events?

4. How is Jesus calling you to respond to him this week?

Announcements:

The Session of CTK has approved a proposal from the deacons for renovations and repairs of our church building. This work will include exterior work, such as repointing the brick, and interior work, including repairs and painting in the sanctuary. The work in the sanctuary will affect our in-person worship services as the pews will need to be temporarily removed. Services will be online-only until late March.

Spring Ahead: This coming Sunday (3/14) is the beginning of daylight saving. Don't forget to set your clocks ahead!

The elders of CTK Cambridge appreciate the difficulty of participating in the life of the congregation during the pandemic and in the many transitions we are experiencing. Over the next several months the elders will be contacting CTK Cambridge members and regular attenders to arrange brief calls (by phone or Zoom) to “check in” and encourage the congregation in our walks with Christ. Going forward we intend to periodically touch base with individuals and families in a more systematic manner. As always, the deacons are ready to assist with financial and other needs you may be facing. In fact, deacons will frequently participate with the elders in the visits we are planning. We intend for these visits to help us fulfill our responsibility to “shepherd the flock” (I Peter 5:2) and ask for your prayers for the session as we serve our Lord together.
